

Florida Awards ICF Comprehensive Management Services Contract

Statewide Vehicle Provides Access to Broad Array of Services

RESTON, Va., Feb. 23, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- The Florida Department of Management Services (DMS) has selected leading global solutions and technology provider ICF (NASDAQ: ICFI) as an awardee on its expanded, three-year comprehensive management services contract. Under this recompetitively contract vehicle, ICF is eligible to provide management services to statewide programs across all service categories.

Through this contract, ICF will support programs to strengthen operations, deliver critical public services and positively impact Florida communities. A wide range of services will be provided including disaster management, program and grants management, environmental, infrastructure and agricultural support, workforce development and technology modernization. ICF will also leverage the expertise of ICF Next, the company's integrated, full-service digital and communications agency, to help state departments connect with Florida residents, municipalities and stakeholders more effectively.

ICF's services will support statewide efforts with improving and accelerating program delivery and building long-term infrastructure resilience.

"Florida needs a proven partner who can move quickly, compliantly and cost-effectively," said Kyle Wiggins, ICF senior vice president for energy, environment and infrastructure. "Our decades of experience delivering large-scale programs, managing statewide initiatives and implementing advanced technology solutions will help improve efficiencies and deliver measurable results for communities across Florida."

ICF combines technology solutions with local staff who have deep, industry-specific expertise to help state and local governments deliver more with less. Working with various states nationwide, ICF has achieved measurable results in building stronger, more resilient communities.
